

Each point is one maternal plant (n = 581); horizontal jitter separates overlapping points.